Aidan Gauthe, leukemia survivor

Aidan Gauthe attends the 4th grade at Immaculate Conception School in Marrero, LA. On February 9, 2011, he was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia. The very next day, he started going through chemotherapy. Although Aidan has to continue chemotherapy for the next 2 years, he is glad to say he is currently in remission!

Aidan enjoys fishing, riding his electric scooter, and hanging out with his older brother Nicholas. As an honored hero, Aidan is helping to increase awareness of blood cancers and help raise money for treatment, support services and research.

Thank you, Aidan, for being our hero!
